ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

Campus Resources

Office of Health Promotion (RebelADE)

214 Turner Center

662-915-6543

healthpromotion@olemiss.edu

The Office of Health Promotion administers RebelADE, a mandatory program for students who have received an alcohol or drug violation. The City of Oxford Municipal Court, University of Mississippi Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct, and Housing Student Conduct mandate students. Occasionally, students request to participate in RebelADE, because the program satisfies court requirements from another state. RebelADE utilizes a combination of education, harm reduction, and support. Graduate assistants conduct all sessions.

University Counseling Center (UCC)

554 Fraternity Row

662-915-3784

counslg@olemiss.edu

Counselors from the UCC will provide educational and outreach programs to specific groups on campus on the dangers of alcohol and other drug abuse and addiction. These programs can be specifically tailored to the intended population of students with topics ranging from abstinence to harm reduction for the use of various substances

Counselor Education Clinic for Outreach and Personal Enrichment (C.O.P.E.)

850 Insight Park

(662) 915-7197

C.O.P.E. offers services to the community, children, parents and individual adults under supervised graduate counselor education students. Sliding fee scale.

Collegiate Recovery Community (CRC)

214 Turner Center

662-915-6543

recovery@olemiss.edu

The Collegiate Recovery Community (CRC) at the University of Mississippi is a community of support designed to help students in recovery from addiction achieve their academic goals. The community establishes an academic and social support system to address the unique challenges recovering students face in a collegiate environment. The CRC offers some opportunity for financial aid in the form of an academic scholarship.

The following therapists have been contacted and reported offering individual treatment services relating to alcohol and drug issues.***

Timothy Kelly, MD

Dr. Kelly earned his medical degree from the University of Tennessee College of Medicine and completed his psychiatric residency at Massachusetts General Hospital. The focus of his training during residency was on affective disorders, specifically bipolar disorder. In his solo private practice, Dr. Kelly is considered a generalist and treats a majority of clients with mood disorders. He also treats clients for substance abuse and addiction, primarily through the medication Antabuse. Dr. Kelly refers clients with substance abuse and addiction issues to Pete Martin, a Licensed Professional Counselor, in Oxford, Mississippi. If inpatient care is necessary, Dr. Kelly refers clients to treatment facilities, including the Haven House, in Oxford, Mississippi, Cumberland Heights, in Nashville, Tennessee, and Talbott Recovery Treatment Center, in Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Kelly can be reached at 662-236-6696.

Pete Martin, LPC

Mr. Martin is a Licensed Professional Counselor specializing in individual, couples, and alcohol and other drug treatment. Mr. Martin is the main referral source for Dr. Tim Kelly as well as an established member of the Oxford community of therapists. He can be reached at 662-832-9624 or martincounseling@gmail.com. His office is located at 428 N. Lamar Blvd, Oxford, MS 38655.

Meghan Anderson, M.Ed., LPC, NCC – Anderson Family Counseling of Oxford, LLC

Ms. Anderson is a Licensed Professional Counselor and a Nationally Certified Counselor who specializes in working with adolescents and families. Her main focus for alcohol and other drugs is with teenagers. She can be reached at 662-801-4088 or meghanranderson@yahoo.com. Her office is located at 110 Breckenridge Dr., Oxford, MS 38655.

Matt Campbell, Ph.D. – Campbell Psychological Services, PLLC

Dr. Campbell is a Licensed Psychologist who has been practicing in Oxford since 2003. He specializes in psychological assessments and evaluation/diagnosis. He is willing and able to see clients with alcohol and other drug issues and can provide a range of assessment to aid in his psychotherapy. Dr. Campbell can be reached at 662-513-9936. His office is located at 2005 Harris Dr., Oxford, MS 38655.
